FenixApps Reseller Program Terms of Use

1. Definitions

By "Provider" we refer to FenixApps (Akcijska LTD.). By "Reseller" we refer to you as a customer of the Provider, who desires to purchase products and services from the Provider with the purpose of selling them to your own customers. By "End User" we refer to the end consumer of the services offered.

2. How does the payment work?

- a) A discount will be included in the invoice, depending on the number of sold applications by the Reseller in the month. The discount is actually Reseller's profit.
- b) A 20% (1-2 applications), 30% (1-3 applications), 40% (1-4 applications), 50% discount (5 or more applications) can be provided in a one-month period only.
- c) Reseller issues an invoice to the End User and can set his own price.

3. Reseller's obligations towards the Provider

To qualify as a reseller, you must fulfill the following requirements: a) You must read and agree to the FenixApps Reseller Program Terms of Use.

4. Rights of the reseller

- a) The Reseller has the right to re-sell applications and set his own prices.

5. Reseller support

The Provider obliges to provide technical support to the Reseller via e-mail every day of the year. Besides technical support, marketing and sales resources will be provided by the Provider to the Reseller.

6. End user support

The Reseller will provide technical support to the End Users. The Provider will supply the Reseller with a large number of pre-answered potential questions (an F.A.Q list) for his convenience.
